

...and do lots of other things at Castleton Free Library this summer!

Kids as Authors, Illustrators, and Publishers: A Bookmaking Workshop for students entering 3rd & 4th grade (inquire if you have younger children with strong interest)

Instructor: Sue DeCarolis

Sue is a retired educator and reading specialist who has worked locally as a teacher, principal, curriculum coordinator, and consultant. She loves helping kids make their own books. Each participant will create a hardcover book from start to finish.

Meeting times: afternoons from 3:00-5:00 in July

Dates: Tue. 7/5, Wed. 7/6, Thu. 7/7, Mon. 7/11, Tue. 7/12, & Wed. 7/13

YOU MUST SIGN-UP TO PARTICIPATE. Please do so ASAP as enrollment is very limited for this program.

Two ways to sign up:

- Call the the library at 468-5574, and talk to Jan, or leave a message with your child's name, grade in August, a contact number or email to reach you, and the program of interest.

- Email the library with the above info at castletonfreelibrary@gmail.com

Jan will contact you to answer any questions, confirm that there is space, and complete the registration.

(See reverse side for info about other special programs.)