In Praise of Garbage

FAIR HAVEN INN • 4:00 P.M.

Matthew Moriarty

Professor of Archeology, Castleton University

Trash is a big problem, right?
Not always.

Archaeologist Matthew Moriarty explains the “science of garbage” through the lens of recent archaeological research in Rutland County and beyond.

Listen to short informal lectures by area experts, and join the lively conversation. Have a drink, stay for dinner (or not), and end your weekend with a spurt of brain growth!
